

Please save the Do Not Call List law. Prior to its enactment, our household was plagued with unsolicited, unnecessary calls each day-including Saturday and Sunday. These are nuisance calls. Their only impact is to ensure that I do not consider the purchase of any product promoted by a telemarketer.